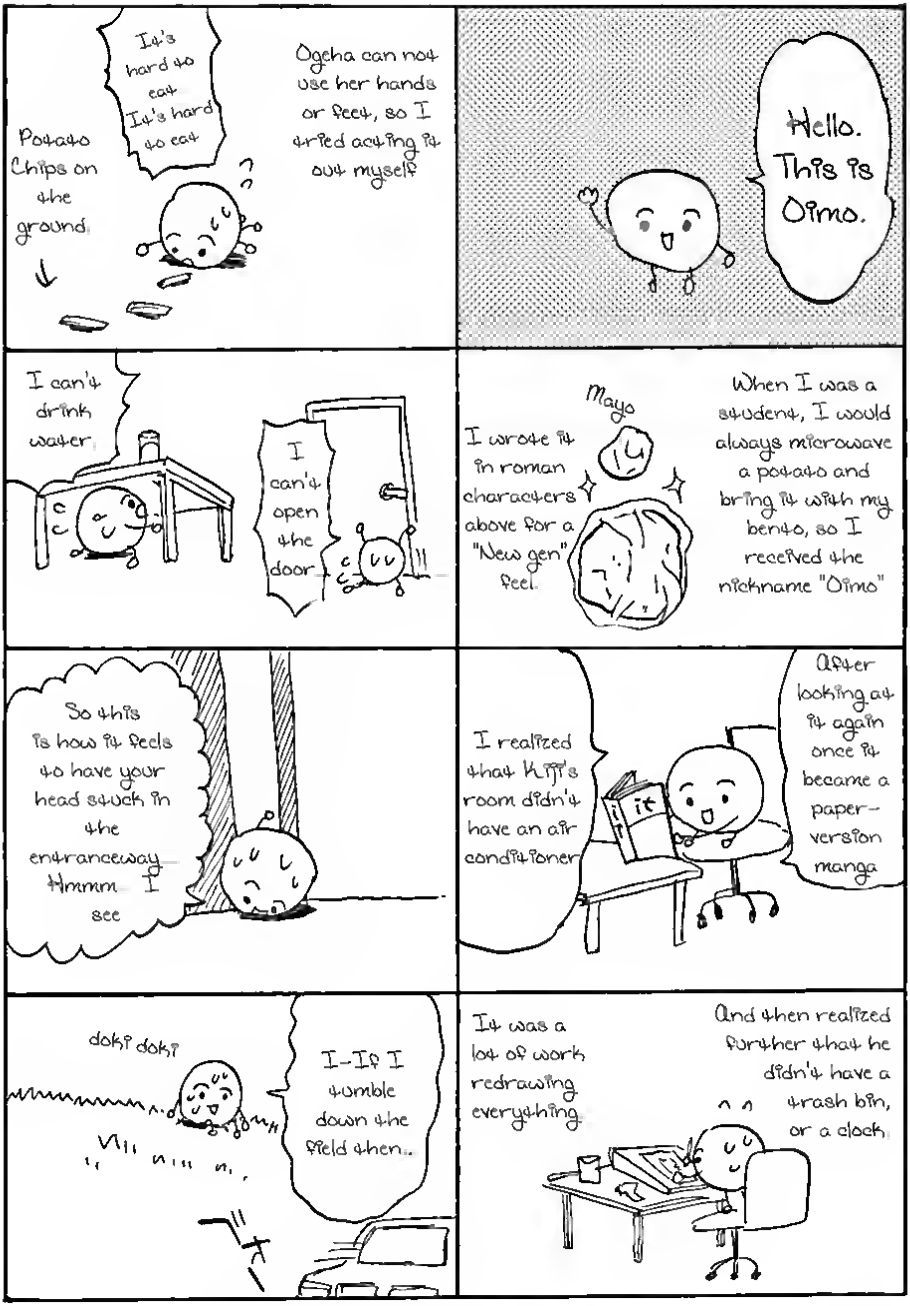
Afterword



It's hard to eat. It's hard to eat
Potato Chips on the ground
Ogeha can not use her hands or feet, so I tried acting it out myself Hello. This is Oimo.
I can't drink water
I can't open the door
I wrote it in roman characters above for a "New gen" feel.
Mayo
When I was a student, I would always microwave a potato and bring it with my bento, so I received the nickname "Oimo"
So this is how it feels to have your head stuck in the entranceway. Hmmm I see
I realized that Kiji's room didn't have an air conditioner
After looking at it again once it became a paper-version manga doki? doki?
I-If I tumble down the field then...
It was a lot of work redrawing everything.
And then realized further that he didn't have a trash bin, or a clock.

Ogeha

Paper-version has been released!
I didn't feel like I was doing the
inking very well,
but now at chapter
5 I think I've finally gotten the hang of it!
I'll work even harder
on volume 2!
